

We, my husband Walter and I, were getting about 10 calls between 5:30 pm and 7:30 pm. It was to the point where we did not answer the phone anymore. I am happy with this new law because the calls have dropped to almost 0, occassionally on a weekend, we get credit card solicitations, but that's from our existing credit card companies.